

Star-Bulletin's Page of Sports

Edited by OWEN MERRICK

FOOTBALL STARS MEET TODAY ON MANY GRIDIRONS

Although the world series is at press and the big news of the sport world still there are a number of other games played today throughout the country that will be of interest to the spectators. In Philadelphia while the Red and Philadelphia baseball teams are fighting for the championship of the National League, the University of Pennsylvania and Penn State football teams will be fighting for the Pennsylvania championship at Franklin field. The two teams did not play last year.

One of the best games of the year scheduled for today is the Harvard-Carlisle contest at Cambridge. The two eleven did not meet last year, but the Carlisle squad always plays well against the Crimson, although they are usually weak this season. It will at least be a good test for Harvard. Princeton and Syracuse meet again this year at Princeton, and this game should be a hotly contested one as both teams are rivals. Princeton has Nuss, a new man, at the head of the team this year, and the former Cleveland man will be put to the test today. Last year the Tigers defeated Syracuse by a score of 12 to 7.

Last season the Pittsburgh eleven, one of the greatest teams of the year, defeated the Navy by a score of 12 to 0. They will meet again today at Annapolis, and Glenn S. Warner, so long coach of the Carlisle Indians, will be the Pittsburgh coach. "Turkey" Warwick, former Harvard star, will assist in the coaching at Annapolis. The Army will meet Gettysburg in what should be a victory for the West Point team. Last year Yale defeated Lehigh 21 to 3, but the Yale team hasn't been going so well this year, unless the Virginia defeat was a fluke. Last year Lehigh with Cahill defeated many strong teams and many of the men are back, so the Bulldogs may have a hard contest at the bowl. Amherst and Brown meet today at Hanover. Last year they played a scoreless tie. Dartmouth should have an easy game with Tufts today.

In the Middle West Illinois will meet Missouri School of Mines. Zuppke has a great team with Poole and Clark back, but he will meet a team that escaped notice last year but remained undefeated. The boys from Iowa made 540 points last year in eight games, and this was the record for the year. In fact, their star, ranked as one of the leading players of the year.

Missouri will play Iowa. Indiana will play Miami. Wisconsin stacks up against Marquette at Madison, and Yost will send his team against Mount Union. All three schools should bring home victories against their opponents. The South will stage a really decisive contest when Coach McGinnis's Vanderbilt team meets Georgetown at Nashville. Last Saturday Georgetown defeated the Navy, and the Washington squad will be out for the southern championship.

BOSS OF JAPANESE WRESTLERS ARRIVED IN CITY YESTERDAY

Among the passengers aboard the Chiyo Maru when she docked yesterday morning was a huge Japanese, who turned out to be T. Tachiyama, former champion wrestler of Japan. He was defeated a few years ago by T. Umegaki, the big mat expert, who has been in Honolulu this week giving exhibitions with the other Japanese wrestlers returning from the fair. Tachiyama is on his way back to Japan, and will have a chance to meet his fellow wrestler who left yesterday on the same boat for Nippon. The former champion called on President Roosevelt a number of years ago, and demonstrated to "Teddy" the features of Japanese wrestling.

MADE LONGER HITS POSSIBLE.

A baseball weighed three ounces in 1845 and because of its lightness used to have tremendous distance when properly swatted.

In 1854 the weight was increased to six and one-quarter ounces. This was found to be too heavy. In 1890 it was reduced to six ounces, and in 1874 it was again reduced a quarter of an ounce.

In later years it was further reduced until it reached its present weight of a trifle over five ounces.

PLATT ADAMS INJURED.

NEW YORK.—Platt Adams, the best all-around amateur jumper in the world, will be out of competition for about six months as the result of a pulled tendon in the left leg which he received while playing baseball in Newark. The injury to the Newark athlete will prevent him from competing in some of the biggest athletic events of the winter season.

WESTERN COLLEGES ORGANIZE. Colleges of the recently formed Western Athletic association will hold an indoor track meet at the Oregon Agricultural college of Corvallis, Ore., in February next.

Final Round For Manoa Trophy to Be Held Sunday

The final round of play for the Manoa trophy will begin at the Oahu Country Club tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. There will be 16 golfers playing from scratch in the medal play. Last Sunday several good scores were made and a hard fight is on for tomorrow. In the qualifying round four players loomed up as the leaders, and when the cards are turned in tomorrow it is expected that the quartet will be well up in the running.

In the qualifying round H. B. Gifford finished with a score of 166 for the 36 holes. J. I. B. Grief was second with 165. A. White third with 165 and Capt. Lincoln fourth with 167. It is certain that this order will not be continued on Sunday, and there may be many upsets in the day's play. The above golfers have been consistent in their play, and it is expected that one of the four will turn in the best score tomorrow.

Handicap Play Booked. The class of play was up to standard in the first round, and with keen competition that is expected, scores of under 80 will be expected out and back. In addition to the regular medal play tournament, there will be a handicap match at the same time, so that all players will have an equal opportunity to try for a prize.

A. F. Bell announces the course in good condition and if it remains so a new record for the Manoa cup may be hung tomorrow. Many of the handicap players are predicting that they will come back to the 19th hole with good cards tomorrow, and the handicap match should be a free for all scramble for honors. The contestants will hold forth both in the morning and the afternoon and tomorrow evening the members will hear some great stories of how some one happened to take nine for the fifth hole.

World Series Notes

What will Moran's left-handed pitcher do against Leonard, Ruth and Greig if Carrigan uses the porters?

Wait till the teams reach Boston then the attendance mark will go up many points.

Alexander jumped further into the limelight when he kept the Red Sox down to one run. Hits off the Philadelphia star were scattered.

Dode Paskert gave Tris Speaker something to aim at when he made a circus catch on Garner's drive to the center garden.

Jack Barry should be worth more in a big series than Niehoff. Last year Niehoff played only an average game with the Reds, but you can never tell about these few game heroes.

David Bancroft started well yesterday, and the former coast leaguer performed in the initial game like a big leaguer.

Leonard and Foster are again to the front. Last year the duo led the American League in runs made per game, and this season they rank up at the top in that department.

Local fans backed Philadelphia yesterday. Today they are many who will get on the Boston band wagon with Alexander out of it.

One of the best stories of the chances of the teams to win the series written this year was that of D. L. Withington, the local attorney. Mr. Withington gave an analysis of the team play, their strength in many departments and the players as have performed throughout the season. The article, which was published in yesterday's edition of the Star-Bulletin, was favorably commented upon by many of the fans of Honolulu.

MAKIKI STARS WILL PLAY POST LAUNDRY TOSSESS TOMORROW

The Makiki Stars, champions of the 1915 season, will meet the Post Laundry team at Lihalehale on Saturday afternoon. This will be the first of three games scheduled for the championship of their division. Manager Jackson will have a strong lineup in the field against the crack laundry team. The game is scheduled for 1:45. The Makiki lineup is as follows:

Jensen, p; Frank Zerbe, c; Jackson, 1b; Johnson, 2b; Bill Williams, 3b; Arthur Nelson, ss; Eben Cunningham, lf; Tim Sea, cf; Argus Markham or Costa, rf; subs, M. Markham, J. Whitney.

MARATHON PROPOSED.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the Haleiwa Marathon will meet at 1428 Alakea street on Tuesday evening. All who are interested in the promotion of this event are requested to be at this address on Tuesday evening. Arrangements will also be made for the Kalakoo walking race.

Sturdy Knights of Gridiron Ready For Play

Football Team of F Battery, 1st Field Artillery. Top row (left to right)—Powell, Dedrick, Katterson, Lambert, DeShelter, Kirks, Long. Second row—Rwing, Bodner (captain), Menard, Russell, Kubar, Dancy. Lower row—Sergeant Cain (manager), Hoffer, Fling, Christian, Valeris.

PUNAHOU WILL HAVE STRUGGLE WITH MCKINLEY

This afternoon Punahou and McKinley will meet in one of the best games of the season. Interest is running high this year as has always been the case in previous years, but the rowdism which characterized the games last year will be gone away with. Every effort has been made by the officials to have everything run off smoothly. Alexander Field has been smoothed, relined and sodded, and a wire fence has been placed around the field to prevent the overzealous rooters from crowding on the field.

Punahou has been working hard this year and Coach Midkiff has been making every effort to again produce a championship team. The team is not as heavy or fast as usual and must rely on her trick formations and kicking. At the beginning of the practice this fall much doubt was expressed because of the loss of George Quintal, but Antonio Correa, who played for Kamehameha two years ago, stepped into a fairly good kicker. Capt. Bill Napahua and John Gifford, the only old men on the team, have been showing rare form. Hippa and Noble Kauhane, former stars at Kamehameha and McKinley respectively, are strengthening the back field.

Yesterday the academy held a mass meeting in Pasha Hall and much enthusiasm was aroused. The yells were rehearsed and everybody promised to be out in full force.

At McKinley this year the situation is very bright and the men are going in with the determination to do or die. Captain Harry Melim has been working the men hard in preparation to today's game and he places much confidence in his men. Both Gifford and Alvin Melim will be again seen in action, much to the delight of McKinley supporters. Sam Carter and Henry Bent are showing up well in the back field. The line will be fairly strong and together with the speedy back field, the McKinley team are out for the championship.

Mass meetings have been held at various times during the week in the assembly hall at High school. The cheer leaders have been rehearsing the yells in preparation for today. A goodly crowd of rooters are bound to be out on the field when the gong sounds.

The line up: Punahou—Noble Kauhane, left end; "Sleepy" Baldwin, left tackle; Robert Kula, left guard; Ernest Mott-Smith, center; Harry Fitzcheek, right guard; John Gifford, right tackle; George Bromley, right end; Hippa, quarter back; Capt. "Bill" Napahua, right half; Antonio Correa, full back; and Gordon Norris, left half. Jere Smith, Theodore Awana, C. Gibb, G. Wakefield, Pilly Noble, A. Macaulay, Lorrin Thurston and D. and J. Pratt, substitutes.

McKinley—Alvin Melim, center; F. Tvan, left guard; Sam Lavin, left tackle; David Bent, left end; C. Chang, right guard; William Thompson, right tackle; George Hawkins, right end; Capt. Harry Melim, quarter back; Henry Bent, left half; Sam Carter, full back; and Clifford Melim, right half. Substitutes—Fred Carter, Joseph Sullivan, George Hawkins, Joe Jones and T. Sora.

The game is called for 3 o'clock sharp on Alexander Field.

FROM THE FRONT.

(By Special Windlass).

Bush League Park. Special Windlass from Moran.

The day broke clear. No grounds for complaint. Weather all around. Attendance marvelous.

Today's game opened with Mendel at the stick. Cigar in the box, and Small Fox, catching.

Horn on first base and Fiddle on second base made it hot for Um-pire Egg who was rotten.

Ax came to bat and chopped. Eagle flew out to right. Cigar let Side walk. Amendment was passed and Sawdust filled the bases.

Base hit and Twenty made a score. Monoplane went up in the air and Jimmy Valentine stole home. Cigar went out and Bowl legged to first. Egg scrambled to the line and tried to Punch Bowl.

Wild Goose Chase. Then Goose tried but was wild. It was a wild goose chase. Old ice was cool at the bat when he was hit by the pitcher and it made ice cream. Grass covered lots of ground and Spider caught a fly. Diamond died on first when Firecrackers popped up. Wind blew in from third on a liner from Nagasaki and Barney called Spider down which gave Barney Joy. Broad loafed on third when Light went out.

In the sixth Knite was out for outting first base and they roared. Peanut. In the eighth Corn was shocked when Hlad made a homer and later Green Apples made him double a man at second. Glass smashed and Trombone made a slide while Meat was on the plate.

Betting—Soap cleaned up and Paradise lost his wand. Wright handed a five to Glass who was broke. Baker made some Dough on Game.

Tomorrow's battery—Storage and charged.

*****

Matty Baldwin Prefers Grand Opera to Ring

Matty Baldwin, the Boston light weight, is a bug on grand opera. Baldwin never misses a concert of this kind and oftentimes during the winter makes four and five special trips to New York to attend the Metropolitan Opera House festivities.

Baldwin has an appreciation of the classical music far beyond that of any man in the ring and far beyond that of 90 per cent of the ordinary musical lovers. He has been attending concerts for years, knows every one of the great operas, can play them and sing them.

Some years ago Baldwin was billed to fight in a star bout in Boston. He was to get $1000 as his share of the proceeds. A few days before the fight was to be staged Baldwin dropped around to the promoter and asked that the match be canceled.

"My reason is that I want to attend an operatic performance which is to be put on here the same night as the fight," said Baldwin.

The promoter refused to let Baldwin withdraw and the matter was finally adjusted by shifting the time of the Baldwin bout from 10 p. m. to 11:15 p. m., which gave Baldwin time enough to attend the opera and get back to the arena and into his ring togs.

*****

WALKER TAKES UP SWIMMING.

George Goulding of Toronto, the world's greatest walker, has taken up swimming. He was originally a middle distance runner and represented Canada at the London Olympic games as a runner.

Among the attractive events scheduled for lunch hour programs at the Commercial Club is a talk by J. S. Tichenor of New York, the army and navy Y. M. C. A. worker, on "The Soldier and the Civilian." He will speak next Monday noon.

Vincent J. Maloney, a messenger of the Chatham National Bank, was blackjacked and robbed of $2,000 in cash and a number of checks by two Italians before a large crowd at 433 East 106th Street, New York.

STAR-BULLETIN GIVES YOU TODAY'S NEWS TODAY

Wray Deposed As Crew Coach At Cambridge

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—Harvard will practically return to graduate coaching in rowing this season. Robert F. Herrick, 30, chairman of the Harvard rowing committee, will act as head coach. He will be assisted by William Haines, coach of the Union Boat club, who will do the greater part of the active coaching.

What will be done with Jim Wray, who rounded out eleven years of Harvard service last June, depends mainly on his own attitude. Wray has two years more to serve on a personal contract with Mr. Herrick, but has no official document with the Harvard A. A. He may be retained in a minor capacity should he care to stay in Cambridge.

Herrick won at Henley. Herrick captained the 1890 crew at Henley, but resigned under circumstances similar to those which forced Capt. Deneire from his seat in the Yale shell in 1914. His best known feat was the coaching of the Harvard second crew which won the Grand Challenge Cup in the English Henley in 1914, being the first American crew to achieve this result.

Haines coached in England and Germany before coming to the States. He has been coach with the Union Club five years and finished second to Herrick's crew in the English Henley. Wray was seven of his nine annual starts against Yale up to the time Guy Nickalls took charge of the Yale crew. The Englishman's Blue boat beat Harvard's crew by inches in 1914 and last spring defeated them decisively.

SPALDING LED FIRST WINNER IN OLD LEAGUE

The Philadelphia baseball team are playing their first game of the world series today after winning their first pennant in the National League. The man who was first to lead a National league team to victory has recently passed away, and although he did not live to see the Quakers win this pennant, he has watched many others. He has been one man who has always advocated clean baseball. He built up a great business that prospered because he was a thorough student of the game and knew what the sportman needed. This man, A. G. Spalding, brought baseball around the world. He visited Honolulu many years ago with a touring team, and although he was unable to play a game here, he did much to boost the game in the islands.

Father of Baseball. Albert G. Spalding did not invent baseball, but he made the game clean, scientific and popular. He eradicated the gambling which had infested the bleachers and the diamond, disciplined the players and codified the rules. His improvements in the national game won him the merited title of "The Father of Baseball." Spalding, who died only the other day, began life as a student at a business college, intending to go through the regular routine of a mercantile career. But destiny, who is often a friend in disguise, drove him out of college for want of funds and pointed to the baseball field as the surest and easiest way to earn his living. His boyhood friends quickly recognized his extraordinary gifts and attached him to their local club, but greater things were in store for him. He passed on to the big eastern clubs and presently became the prime figure in the baseball world. His skill made him a favorite with professionals and the public, and his influence, as he acquired it, was always exerted for good ends.

Spalding was interested in many other games besides baseball and his well-known manuals became authorities in all of them. In his way he was one of the most useful men of his time, for the country needs good sport as much as honest politics and spiritual sermons. Spalding did his part thoroughly well in the walk of life he chose for himself and few men deserve higher praise than that. A clean sport, an upright man and a good citizen, he has a place in the history of the time not less honorable than many who made louder claims to recognition.

Takes that right field fence at Philadelphia. The Quakers are used to sticking it in and the Phillies with Gravel, Luderus, Pancetti and Becker may be able to do more damage than Speaker and Grimmer. Consider that an advantage. Then place Alexander as better than any of the Red Sox pitchers, with the allowance made for hitting a side arm twirler. Figure Becker to play against Foster or Shore and Whitten against Ruth and Leonard. Consider the advantage Boston has in the outfield, then make a good guess. The players eligible to play in the series with their divisions are as follows:

Philadelphia Nationals	B. A.	F. A.
Alexander, pitcher	175	592
Mayer, pitcher	215	587
Fitzke, pitcher	175	596
Dempree, pitcher	175	1,006
McQuillen, pitcher	200	521
Chalmers, pitcher	188	577
Tincup, pitcher
Pasmgartner, pitcher
Killifer, catcher	241	573
Burns, catcher	248	566
Adams, catcher
Luders, first base	218	589
Nichols, second base	221	543
Dokey, second base	175
Pyrie, third base	204	574
Stark, third base	204	574
Reinert, shortstop	240	570
Whitted, left field	251	587
Poicket, center field	240	584
Cravath, right field	235	550
Becker, outfield	251	550
Weiser, outfield	150

Boston Americans.

Name	B. A.	F. A.
Carrigan, catcher	207	560
Collins, pitcher	210	580
Foster, pitcher	230	594
Gainer, first base	272	584
Grege, pitcher	291	1,006
Hendricks, second base	227	583
Hobbs, left field	252	580
Hooper, right field	252	575
Jayvitt, shortstop	207	541
Leonard, pitcher	220	580
Lewis, left field	230	582
Mays, pitcher	242	542
Ruth, pitcher	231	587
Scott, shortstop	165	521
Shore, pitcher	250	542
Swisher, center field	220	577
Warner, second base	241	571
Wood, pitcher	224	582

*****

TEAMS SELECT PLAYERS FOR WORLD SERIES

When the Boston and Philadelphia teams took the field yesterday at the Quaker City, 44 players were eligible to play in the big series. And in that number are many stars of baseball. Standing out over the other figures is Grover Cleveland Alexander, who up to this season was not given half the publicity he deserved. When Walter Johnson secured a column, the Philadelphia star was underrated. Then there are Tris Speaker, "Gaby" Gravath, Fred Luderus, "Duffy" Lewis and others. The entire pitching corps of the Boston team are stars.

If the teams were to play a 30-game series, it would be easy for the Boston team without a doubt. This year they will have a fight on their hands, and the reason is one Alexander, who is "some pumpkin." It does figures out Boston looks good for the series. It is a strange game to the series this year. Let us look at the entire list of players eligible to play in the series and anyone who has followed baseball closely naturally favors the Braves.

Fallenow Copies Series. Hugh Fullerton, who is one of the deities of the game, was wrong last year, but he has a system this year that he cannot be beat. He gives each player a certain per cent, taken out for weather conditions, multiples and subtracts, then takes the square of the number of men on the team and divides this by the least common multiple, of course allowing for the shift in sugar stocks. Fullerton is the real dyed-in-the-wool expert of the sporting world, but Hickey always forgets the real details when he comes to summing up.

Takes that right field fence at Philadelphia. The Quakers are used to sticking it in and the Phillies with Gravel, Luderus, Pancetti and Becker may be able to do more damage than Speaker and Grimmer. Consider that an advantage. Then place Alexander as better than any of the Red Sox pitchers, with the allowance made for hitting a side arm twirler. Figure Becker to play against Foster or Shore and Whitten against Ruth and Leonard. Consider the advantage Boston has in the outfield, then make a good guess. The players eligible to play in the series with their divisions are as follows:

F BATTERY TO HAVE FOOTBALL TEAM THIS YEAR

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.) SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Oct. 8.—F Battery has received a new assignment of football uniforms, and the athletes of the battery have turned out in real earnest to develop a team that bids fair to setting up a few slabs in Schofield's hall of football fame. The suits are brown. The jerseys are navy blue with a white circle, within which is a very red "F." The stockings are navy blue with a white band.

F Battery furnished a large share of the players on the Field Artillery team last season and expects to do so again this year. F and B are the two batteries most interested in football, both have good teams in the field, and after they have played a series of games against each other they will combine to form the nucleus of a regimental team. The F Battery men still with the regiment who played on the regimental team last year are Bodner, Menard, Dancy, Christian, Fling, Riley and Long.

Practice Game Scheduled.

F Battery had an engagement to line up for a short practice scrimmage with B Battery Thursday afternoon, but B Battery was prevented from turning out by military duties. A large crowd had gathered at Bodner, the captain, lined up his second team for a couple of periods against the first, and some classy football ensued. The first team scored two touchdowns. F Battery plays an open game, with excellent interference on the line runs and accurate handling of the ball on the forward passes. Both Menard and Cain are expert at booting the pigskin. Sergeant Cain, who plays right tackle, also manages the team. In the main staff of the line, "Deep Sea Cain, the Human Pile-Driver" they call him. Ewing at right guard, with his 300 pounds, is also a good man in the line and is an opponent like the record of a 4-inch howitzer. Dancy, who played quarterback on the scrub team last Thursday, though not as tender as Menard has lots of speed and proved a good ground-gainer.

The line-up of the first team is as follows:

Dancy, left end; Hoffer, left tackle; Christian, left guard; Fling, center; Ewing, right guard; Cain, right tackle; Powell, right end; Menard, quarterback; Riley, left half; Bodner, (capt.), right half; Katterson, full back.

F Battery is anxious to schedule practice games with any teams on Oahu.

WAR HAS EFFECT ON TENNIS IN BRISBANE

The Australian lawn tennis championships for 1915 were decided at a tournament held at Brisbane late in August with the following results:

F. Gordon Lowe of England defeated Horace Rice of New South Wales for the Australian singles championship 4-6, 6-1, 6-1, 6-4. Horace Rice and C. Todd, the latter of New South Wales, defeated F. Gordon Lowe of England and H. St. John of Queensland for the Australian doubles championship at 6-4, 6-4, 7-6, 7-5.

The tournament was otherwise an interesting one between New South Wales and Queensland. The debilitating effect of the war upon tennis, as upon all other sports in the Antipodes, is shown by the fact that A. O'Hara Wood of Victoria, who won the singles championship of Australia last season, is at the front with the Australian troops and did not compete. The doubles winners of last season, A. Campbell and G. Patterson, also did not compete for a similar reason.

NEW FREAK PLAY.

An unusual freak baseball play occurred in a recent game between the Athletics and the Cleveland Club at Philadelphia. In the second inning, with two out, Lajoie on third and Healy at bat with two strikes and two balls called, Fitcher Garrett made a wild hit which struck in front of the plate. Healy struck at the bounding ball which hit Catcher O'Dell's mask and rolled back on to the diamond. Healy ran for first. Garrett ran in from the box and, picking up the ball, touched up Lajoie, who was trying to score from third, instead of the side. The net result of the play was that Garrett scored his second run from a wild pitch and scored a hit out. Healy was safe at first on a missed third strike and the side was retired, all on one play.

Carrigan, catcher	207	560
Collins, pitcher	210	580
Foster, pitcher	230	594
Gainer, first base	272	584
Grege, pitcher	291	1,006
Hendricks, second base	227	583
Hobbs, left field	252	580
Hooper, right field	252	575
Jayvitt, shortstop	207	541
Leonard, pitcher	220	580
Lewis, left field	230	582
Mays, pitcher	242	542
Ruth, pitcher	231	587
Scott, shortstop	165	521
Shore, pitcher	250	542
Swisher, center field	220	577
Warner, second base	241	571
Wood, pitcher	224	582